Review: No Picnic - the Guardian

No. 3 Commando was a battalion-sized Commando unit raised by the British Army during the Second World War. Formed in July 1940 from volunteers for special service, it was the first such unit to carry the title of "Commando". Shortly afterwards the unit was involved in a largely unsuccessful raid upon the German-occupied Channel Island of Guernsey.. In 1941 they were involved in successful raids ...

3 Commando Brigade in the Falklands by Julian Thompson ...

Half a year later, Thompson, Commander of the 3 Commando Brigade, Royal Marines, found himself leading just such an amphibious assault halfway around the world from Great Britain. Thompson's job was to get the landing right the first time. There would be no second chance; no Normandy triumph to follow the Dieppe disaster.
